An. Code, 1924, sec. 281. 1912, sec. 249. 1904, sec. 335. 1900, ch. 532, sec. 138F. 1920, ch. 348, sec. 249.

326. No condensed, evaporated or preserved milk shall be manufactured, sold or exchanged, or offered or exposed for sale or exchange, except as hereinafter in this section authorized and provided, unless the same be manufactured from or out of pure, clean, healthy, fresh, unadulterated and wholesome milk, from which the cream has not been removed either wholly or in part, and unless the proportion of milk solids of same shall be in quantity the equivalent of twelve and fifty one-hundredths per centum of milk solids in crude milk, and of which milk solids three and fifty one-hundredths per centum shall be butter fats. No person shall manufacture, sell or exchange, or offer or expose for sale or exchange, any condensed, evaporated or preserved milk unless the same be put up, packed or contained in packages with the name of the manufacturer of the said milk distinctly branded or stamped thereon. Whoever by himself or another violates any of the provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be fined not less than twenty-five dollars nor more than one hundred dollars, or be imprisoned for not less than ten days nor more than thirty days, or be punished by both such fine and imprisonment for the first offense, and by a fine of one hundred dollars or imprisonment for three months, or both such fine and imprisonment, for each subsequent offense. Provided, however, that nothing in this section shall prohibit the
